

Just Naturstein is a production and wholesale company for natural stone, large-format ceramics and quartz composite from Hartha in Central Saxony.

We specialize in our own production of semi-finished products such as raw slabs through to finished products of all kinds, especially European materials from Germany, Austria, Switzerland and the Scandinavian countries.

JUST Architecture & Design - by this we mean the constant development of innovative, creative and unusual products, without abandoning the down-to-earth tradition of stonemasonry. In the center of Dresden, Chemnitz and Leipzig, we offer one of the most beautiful and extensive exhibitions of natural stone north of the Alps. The variety of natural stone ranges from 3-star to 7-star level with over 350 types. You will find inspiration for almost all areas of life and living, with the bathroom exhibition designed in collaboration with AXOR & THG Paris currently representing the highlight for the time being.
